

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

ONLY DIRTIED HIS SUIT—William Miller came as near death as he wants to when his plane dropped 3,000 feet into a field at Baldwin, L. I. Miller was buried in tall weeds and after crawling out of the wreck, brushed himself off and went home. (International Newsreel)

LIVELY POLO SKIRMISH—Even though it was only a practice game, this set-to between the Whites and the Blues of the Piping Rock Club, Long Island, was full of thrills. (International Newsreel)

RECALLS DUEL—Mrs. Mary Shields of New York is 93 years of age. Her husband, General Shields, was a close friend of Lincoln, between whom, as young hot-bloods, a duel was narrowly averted by friendly intervention. (International Newsreel)

TO WED—Miss Mary Altemus of New York is reported engaged to John Whitney, son of Mrs. Payne Whitney. Society eagerly awaits the wedding date. (International Newsreel)

ROUGH—But the "Westward" doesn't care as she wallows over the 40-mile course in the Royal Southampton regatta at Cowes, England. (International Illustrated News)

HER BIRTHDAY, TOO—The day she became 18, Jean Cosgrove (left), Brooklyn high school girl, walked off with first prize at the Coney Island beauty show. Dolly Myers, at the right, was second. Guess the judges know their stuff, all right. (International Newsreel)

JUST LOOKING—Dr. Cu-pertino Del Campo, director of the National Museum of Fine Arts in Buenos Aires, is in this country seeking ideas from American museum for a new building in Buenos Aires. (Harris & Ewing)

STRANGE TEST—Ninety-seven men stand on the wings of the giant "Romar" built in Germany for a world air tour. (International Illustrated News)

ENDS LONG SERVICE—Nearly fifty years of service with the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. ended when H. E. Thayer resigned his position as chairman of the Board of Directors. He had been with the company since 1881. (International Newsreel)

READY FOR THE HIGH SEAS—Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight champion of the world, just did squeeze his big wardrobe into his trunk for his trip to Europe. Tunney plans a walking tour of the Old World. (International Newsreel)

WELCOME FRIENDSHIP BACKER—Left to right are Miss Amelia Earhart, first woman to fly the Atlantic, Commander Byrd and Mrs. Frederick Guest, backer of Miss Earhart's flight, as they appeared at New York where Mrs. Guest has just landed. The two famous flyers were on hand to extend a welcoming hand to the distinguished visitor. (International Illustrated News)

HUNTS LOST EXPLORER—Ernest Udet, German stunt flyer, is ready at Berlin to hop-off in search of Roald Amundsen who has been missing since starting to find the Italia and her crew. (International Newsreel)